Publications Received

THE GREEN BAG. Boston, Mass. Vol. V, Nos. 7, 8, and 9.

These three numbers of the Green Bag contain a series of articles on the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, from the pen of S. S. P. Patteson, Esq., of the Richmond (Va.) Bar. It is the most complete account of this Court which has been published. Mr. Patteson has gathered together from many sources a great mass of important information bearing upon the history of the Court and the lives of its members from its inauguration, with the result of producing one of the most valuable historical sketches that has recently appeared. It is valuable not simply from a legal point of view. It throws most interesting light upon the general spirit of the social and political life of Virginia in the past, and upon the ability, learning and virtue of its public men. These articles are of such unusual merit, and are such notable contributions to the history of the State, that we would suggest their republication in a separate form, so as to make them accessible to the general circle of readers.
